

Customer complaints procedure Sales

We are committed to providing you with the highest standards of service. However, there may be occasions when our service falls short of your expectations.

Residential Sales For the sale and purchase of residential property we are members of The Property Ombudsman Service (TPOS). www.tpos.co.uk

We can help

Tell us what part of our service or procedure you are unhappy about and what you would like us to do to resolve the matter. You can do this by writing to:-
Northover & Williamson 806 Newport Road Rumney Cardiff CF3 4FH

Alternatively, you may forward details of your dissatisfaction by email to:
complaints@northoverwilliamson.co.uk

If you prefer you may telephone on 02920 797919 or visit the branch. Putting your complaint in writing helps us to ensure we have understood all your issues and concerns, which in turn ensures we investigate them fully and fairly. Regardless of how we receive your complaint we will acknowledge receipt in writing within three working days.

The process Your complaint will be considered by the sales manager.

- You will be advised, in the written acknowledgement, who is to be responsible for investigating your complaint.
- You will receive a detailed response within fifteen working days of our receiving your complaint.
- If further time is required to say, receive reports from a third party, then you will receive a written explanation for any delay at the end of the fifteen working day time frame.
- If for any reason a response is not received in the aforementioned time frame, please contact the office.
- If we do not hear from you within a further eight weeks from the date of our response, we will assume the matter has been addressed and we will close our file.
- Should you have concerns in the meantime, please contact the member of staff whose name appears on the letter of acknowledgement.

Still unhappy?

- After receiving our response, if you feel your complaint has not been fully addressed, please let us know.
- Your communication will be acknowledged within three working days of receipt.
- Your concerns will be re considered.
- A second response will be issued within fifteen working days of our receipt of your request for a further review. If we are unable to respond within this time frame, we will inform you of this and we will also advise you of when we anticipate being able to answer your concerns, at the same time as informing you of your right to appeal to a third party.

What happens next?

We are committed to ensuring all complaints are fully and fairly addressed. We respect your right to take any unresolved complaint to an appropriate third party for dispute resolution. Therefore, in our final letter to you we will always confirm when a 'deadlock' situation has been reached, which signals that we have come to the end of our internal complaints procedure and that you may now progress your issues to our Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) entity which is The Property Ombudsman. Details for The Property Ombudsman are as follows:

The Property Ombudsman Service Milford House 43-55 Milford Street Salisbury Wiltshire SP1 2BP T: 01722 333306 E: admin@tpos.co.uk W: www.tpos.co.uk

Please note You should refer the matter forward to The Property Ombudsman as soon as possible after receiving our final response, but always within twelve months of the date of our 'deadlock' letter. You will need to complete our internal complaints procedure before you raise your concerns with the Ombudsman.
